

Thinking Through Religion

Workshop at Roskilde University, June 22-24, 2023

Wednesday June 21: arrival and check in at Ottilia Hotel, Brygghernes Plads 7, 1799, Copenhagen. Arrival dinner in Restaurant Je T'aime, Dybbølsgade 9, 1721 København V, walking distance from the hotel, 7.30pm. (We meet in the hotel lobby at 19pm and walk there together)

Thursday June 22, Roskilde University, Day 1, 10am-4pm, Room 25.2-005

Morning, 10-12.15: Introduction and welcome by Bjørn Thomassen and Andreas Bandak, followed by 4 presentations (20 mins for the presentation plus 10 minutes for questions/discussion):

- 1) Michael Herzfeld: "Casuistry in Religion and Social Life"
- 2) Piero Vereni: "Reflecting by faith. Rationality of the religious and hermeneutical tensions between anthropology, theoretical physics, and Catholic theology"
- 3) Valentina Napolitano: "On mysticism and politics"
- 4) Astrid Krabbe Trolle: "Heritage in hiding: Catholic presence in central Zealand"

Lunch (12.15-1pm)

Afternoon: Symposium/Round table: 'Migration, Movement and Travel', led by Maja Balle, BT & AB (1-4pm)

Expected return at hotel, 5pm. Social Dinner in "Spiselloppen", Christiania, Bådsmændstræde 43, 1407 Copenhagen K, 8pm (we leave from the hotel at 7pm)

Friday June 23, Roskilde University, Day 2, 10am - 4pm, Room 25.2-005

Morning: Short introduction by BT & AB, followed by 4 presentations (20 mins for the presentation plus 10 minutes for questions/discussion):

- 1) Michael Brixtofte Petersen: "Polish Catholic transnationalism in Denmark"
- 2) Kristin Norget: "Managing Indigeneity in the Global Catholic Church: the problem of 'culture' at the periphery"
- 3) Maya Mayblin: "'Everything is connected': emerging thoughts about bodies, biomes, and diversity in the Catholic Brazilian Amazon"
- 4) Matthew Engelke: "Working past religion"-

Lunch (12.15-1pm)

Afternoon: Symposium/Round table: 'Methodologies & Epistemologies' led by BT & AB (1-4pm)

Expected return at hotel, 5pm. Social Dinner in Copenhagen, 19.30pm, Restaurant Tramonto (it is the rooftop restaurant of the hotel).

Saturday June 24: Departure day, possibility for sightseeing in Copenhagen

*Sponsored by the Velux Foundation, in the context of the research project
"The Catholic Ethic and the Spirit of Global Modernities"*